Take A Step

Why?

Why?

---

There are many Biblical reasons why we share the Gospel with others. In this first session, we are focusing on two of them.

1. It is a command of Jesus (Matthew 28:18-20)

2. We are a new creation & have been made ambassadors for Christ (2 Corinthians 5:17-20)

This new identity of ours is key in our understanding that Jesus has given us the mission, entrusted us the authority and empowered us in reconciling the world back to Him.

Take A Step

For our first step we are going to explore our identity together in Jesus. There are some wonderful truths throughout the Word of God that underline who we are as Gods chosen children, yet although we might know them in our heads, we sometimes struggle to carry the truth of them in our hearts!

On the next page you'll find a number of scriptures that speak truth into our souls over who we are in Christ.

Over the coming days try to spend at least 10-15 minutes each day reading these truths. Spend some time:

- Praying into them
- Thanking God for this wonderful new reality
- Declaring these truths over yourself
- Meditating on what these verses mean for your life today

If you are journeying through Take a Step with a friend (or a group) then talk to them about your experience considering these verses:

- Which verses resonate with you most, and why?
- Are there any of these verses you are struggling to believe, and why?

Following these conversations, spend some time ministering to one another with encouragement and prayer and invite the Holy Spirit to come and lead the way.
